

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE
DISTRICT OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

Walter Norton

v.

Civil No. 11-cv-282-JD

United States of America

O R D E R

Walter Norton moves for reconsideration of the court's order that dismissed his motion to vacate his sentence, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2255, because of a lack of jurisdiction. In his motion for reconsideration, Norton argues that his § 2255 claim was not untimely. The motion was dismissed due to a lack of jurisdiction, pursuant to § 2255(h), not because it was untimely.

Conclusion

For the foregoing reasons, the plaintiff's motion for reconsideration (document no. 5) is denied.

SO ORDERED.

Joseph A. DiClerico, Jr.
United States District Judge

June 20, 2011

cc: Walter Norton #03327-049, pro se